Manipur ambush: Did NSCN-K scrap truce following directive from China's PLA?

NEW DELHI: NSCN-Khaplang, which was suspected to have been involved in the killing of 18 Armymen in Manipur recently, abrogated its ceasefire pact with the Centre following instructions from Chinese People's Liberation Army, a senior government official claimed today.

Quoting intelligence inputs, the official said leader of the hardline faction of ULFA Paresch Baruah had convinced NSCN-K leader S S Khaplang to snap the ceasefire agreement with Indian government in March last.

In the worst such attack in two decades, insurgents had on Thursday ambushed a military convoy in Manipur's Chandel district killing at least 18 army personnel and injuring 11 others.

Baruah was acting following instructions from some senior officials of China's PLA, the official said, indicating that had the peace pact not been abrogated, the killing of 18 armymen in Manipur on June 4 would not have taken place.

Khaplang and Baruah often shuttle between Taga (Myanmar) and Ruili and Kunming - both in Yunnan province of China - and are in regular touch with Chinese officials.

The intelligence inputs also suggested that a former officer of China's PLA has set up a factory of assault rifles in Kachin province of Myanmar and majority of the arms produced in it are being supplied to militants of the Northeast, including NSCN-K.

The official said the arms manufacturing unit is located at Pangwa, along Sino-Myanmarese border, and set up by former PLA officer Muk Yan Pau Huan along with former leader of Burmese Communist Party Tin Ying.

Most of the assault rifles being produced in the factory are supplied to various insurgent groups based in the Northeast.

There are at least two dozen insurgent groups operating in the Northeast and most of them have bases and training camps in Kachin province of Myanmar.

Both Khaplang and Baruah help the insurgent groups procuring arms and ammunitions.

Myanmars Army Generals are in the pay pockets of China since a long time and were acting against India at the instruction of China. Why then India has not bothered to check these anti national elements in Myanmar? With things hotting up for China in Kashmir region, they are bound to trouble Indians to the maximum through North Eastern regions of India. Our defense people should find a way to alternative to this and merely making statements to fool people is not enough.

The chinese have great influence over the insurgents groups of the North East. Paresh Baruah is regarded as one of the biggest arms dealers of the region.
